Mayor Hostetler updates about ongoing activities:

The inter-local agreement between the Village of Briarcliff and Travis County Constable Precinct 2 was on the Travis County Commissioners Court agenda to be approved yesterday. At the last moment, Judge Eckhardt pulled the item from the agenda so it did not get acted upon. I have been unable to ascertain the reason the item was pulled. I have written a letter to Judge Eckhardt requesting it be put on the next Commissioners Court agenda. I have increased the workload of our "part-time" Constables to work some daytime hours and some nighttime.

Village elections are set for May 4. Early voting will be April 22 - 30. Early voting in Briarcliff at the community center will be April 27 from 9 am – 6 pm. Also, voting on election day will be at the community center.

Besides Village elections, the ballot for precinct 308 will include a proposition to create a Travis County Emergency Services District Number 16. If this is news to you, I recommend you study the proposition.

City Administrator, Aaron Johnson explained the antennas are being installed and is in the process of getting set up. Amber has training next week. Jamie should have 470 antennas installed within ten days.

Adjourned at 7:13 p.m.
